Anatomy of Oil Imports

President Ford last week turned down a recommendation that a ten-cents a gallon tax be placed on gasoline in order to reduce oil consumption.

It was like putting a tax on hamburger and reducing the cost of filet mignon. It only hurts the guys who can least afford to be hurt.

Gasoline is the focal point of the disturbance the administration calls inflation. Inflation is real, and while the administration says that it hurts everybody, they are only telling the truth — to a point. It may hurt the rich but it destroys those who live on marginal incomes.

An editorial in the Christian Science Monitor recently took a look at the problems created by the oil crisis.

The nation has been called upon to make sacrifices. Yet, these sacrifices have brought some good. It has brought about a break-through of the old fortress walls which the automobile lobby built around the federal gasoline tax, according to Joseph C.. Harsch, the Monitor editorialist. The tax, he explains, can now be used for mass transportation purposes.

Harsch says that Arab oil price increases triggered double-digit inflation in the United States and is more responsible than any other single cause of Western inflation. Nothing is doing more to keep inflation rolling at the present high rate that the decision of the Arab oil-producing countries to keep up the present high price of oil as a bargaining lever against Israel through Washington.

One way to get the Arabs' oil prices down would be persuade Israel to give up some of the Arab lands they conquered during the 1967 war and which they still occupy.

But persuading Israel to give up conquests is a slow, tedious and uncertain business.

Dr. Henry Kissinger's success in this respect has been well below expectations and intentions. Another Arab-Israel war seems to be likely. Another war would mean higher prices of oil to the U.S. as the flow of oil decreases.

The practical way to bring down the cost of Arab oil to the U.S. is for the importers to reduce their imports to the point where the Arabs themselves would find their market dwindling.

In the long run, oil imports can be cut back by other sources of energy. This process can be activated by using less oil. The quickest way to do this would be to tax Arab oil out of the reach of most Americans.

But politically speaking, no such tax is possible on all oil imports because oil is the prime means of heating American homes in winter.

No administration in Washington would dream of raising the cost of oil unnecessarily because heat is an absolute necessity throughout the country. But gasoline is not an absolute necessity.

Most Americans drive more motorcars more miles than necessary. Many drive cars which consume more gas than necessary. Any rise in the cost of gasoline has the long-range beneficial result of inducing Americans to drive fewer miles with any car they happen to own, and to think of buying a lower fuel-consuming car the next time.

A ten-cents a gallon tax would injure most those who depend on their cars for getting to work daily.

It might be possible to grant a rebate in bona fide hardship cases. And even with a rebate the effect of the tax would be to increase group riding, car pooling, and the use of public transport.

There is the argument that a high gasoline tax would be unfair to the low-income people. The answer is that inflation hurts the poor infinitely more than would a gasoline tax.

But bear in mind that the purpose of such a tax would be to reduce American imports of oil from the high price set by exporting countries.

Says Harsch, "the benefit to the poor from a decline in the rate of inflation would far outweigh the pain of having to do more car pooling and using cars less often for single person riding."

One of the considerations of President Ford's decisions not to tax nor ration gasoline was last week's threat of Saudi Arabia's oil minister, Shiek Ahmed Zaki Yamini. Zaki said that ". . . the United States is not in a position to do anything about the energy problem except to co-operate with the oil countries."

He said the tactics used by these countries did not constitute blackmail. "Using the economic forces to serve political means was not invented by Arabs," he said.

Implied was the cut-off of Arabian oil which would reduce consumption by half. It would bring on instant depression to the U.S. Europe and Japan, he said.

Bobby Sox Baseball Champs Get Spring Valley Salute

by Max Goodwin

A fellow sitting next to me at a banquet one night several months ago at which Al Couppee was the speaker observed, "Couppee can tell stories for six hours and never repeat one."

I corrected him. I said "I can tell stories that Couppee has told me for six hours and not repeat one."

And that's the truth.

I was reminded of that when Couppee was master of ceremonies Saturday at the gathering at the Spring Valley park for the purpose of honoring the Spring Valley All-Stars Bobby Sox team which had won the national Bobby Sox championship.

Without any desire to take away from the Bobby Soxers it should be recorded here that Coup introduced the program with one of his stories.

He told of a local sports announced in Des Moines, Iowa during the days when Couppee was playing football as one of the Iron Horsemen of University of Iowa. The announcer was the sports voice of WHO.

Who's Dutch?

The announcer, "Dutch" visited the football dressing room to rap with the players as most sports reporters do. Dutch told of an invitation from William Wrigley, then owner of the Chicago Cubs, to attend spring training with the team on Catalina Island — the invitation being the result of Dutch's outstanding broadcasting of Cubs' games.

Catalina was the hub of Hollywood activity with many film personalities visiting there. Dutch, making about $20 a week back in Iowa, was a friendly sort, and he made some friends who were rich and famous.

Wrigley invited him to come the next year and Dutch renewed old friendships. One, a producer, offered him some bit parts in Hollywood productions. He became a star and later, the governor of California. It was then that Couppee read a letter from Governor Ronald "Dutch" Reagan to the Spring Valley All-Star Bobby Sox Champions.

Reagan wrote:

"The competitive spirit and sheer enjoyment of any athletic effort are only two of the many reasons for participating. A girl learns teamwork and fair play. The need for physical and mental fitness through sports, such as softball, is developing those qualities leading to responsible adulthood.

"Each of you who participated in the championship should be justly proud of this victory."

Signed Ronald Reagan,
governor

The two-hour celebration was devised by Herb Ketell, chairman of the Spring Valley Parks and Recreation Advisory Council to honor the 15 girls who are members of the team which became national champions in August at Buena Park.

Banner Given

A banner was presented to the team by the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce and a check for equipment was given by the S.V. Woman's club. A famed resolution was presented by Lloyd Lowery, director of County Parks and Recreation Department.

Assemblyman Wadie Deddeh was also present to commend the champs.

A letter from the other baseball team — the San Diego Padres was sent by Padre President Buzzie Bavasi. Part of Bavasi's letter ". . . today's youth is often given bad notices by the media and it is extremely gratifying -to see a group of young girls working together in such a fine program as Bobby Sox football. It is a shame that everyone cannot portray the same picture that you do . . . "

Brown's Letter

A letter was also read from Supervisor Diek Brown who was represented by Jerry Mann, his administrative assistant.

A representative of the national board of the Bobby Sox League also attended the ceremony.

Team coaches Jim Stallard and Carol Oftedahl, and team manager Mona Lancaster were honored.

The team, attractive and ladylike, was introduced. Members include Cindy Carroll, Denise Christopher, Wendy Freed, Kim Hilton, Susan Hobb, Beth Hubbard, Beth Kelly, Rhonda McClellan, Leslie Mello, Michelle Moore, Paula Perettie, Mona Shoemaker, Cynthia Smith, Dorene Stallard and Jenny Stallard.

S.V. Horse Thief Steals Yearling

Shades of the old West!

A horsethief broke into the corral at the residence of Henry Ficken Jr., at 9854 Ivanhoe st., Spring Valley and made off with his yearling horse he valued at $350.

The thief did the trick with the aid of a wire cutter.

The sheriff's posse is investigating.

Glenda Jackson Named Secretary Of L.G. Chamber

Glenda Jackson

Glenda Jackson has been named secretary of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce replacing Helen Myers, who had held the post for the past three years.

Mrs. Meyers left to join Warren's Maple Shop, 7825 Broadway, as bookkeeper. She said she needed something to occupy more of her time since all of the youngsters are grown.

Mrs. Jackson and her husband live at 1647 Primera st. in Lemon Grove. They have been residents here for the past 18 years.

Mrs. Jackson was previously in the candle and craft business and for a while was a bowling league statistician.

The couple have five children ranging from 9 to 20 years of age.

Her husband is in the elevator construction business.

The office at 3415 Imperial will continue to be open from 9 to 2 daily.

Marijuana Brings Charges Against 4

Sheriff's deputies, following a lead on a person wanted on a warrant, visited a Spring Valley apartment at 708 Conception Monday.

The person sought was not there. But four others, including a 15-year old boy, were there, together with a very noticeable odor of marijuana.

After finding marijuana cigaretes, 57 amphetamine tablets; a package of crushed amphetamines; 2 hash pipes; 6 roach clips and several packages of zigzag papers officers took into custody and charged with possession, and being present where marijuana and paraphernalia were, included the 15-year old boy; Judy Sue Clouse 22 and Sherry Jeanette Clouse, 19, of the Conception address; and Gregory Eugene Anderson, 19, of 1832 Englewood dr., Lemon Grove.

BEAUTY AND THE PUMP — Bonnie Barth pumps gasoline at the UCO station on Broadway at New Jersey while Jeff Crosswhite, shift manager, looks on. UCO, until this week, was Urich when the firm changed its name. It also changed prices downward and became one of the first stations to cut prices below 50 cents a gallon. It also employs one of the prettiest gas girls.

'No Parking' Signs Go Up On Golden ave.

Parking is growing scarcer in Lemon Grove.

Beginning this week, parking will be banned on both sides on Golden ave. from a point where School lane intersects westly some 200 feet on the south side and 150 feet on the north.

Both sides of the street have signs reading "Emergency Vehicles Only" and red curbs are being painted along the banned areas.

The area will be used for sheriff's department vehicles as officers report to the nearby Lemon Grove office.

Until red curbs are painted, warnings will be issued Sheriff's Captain Barney Oldham said.

Then come citations.

Roll Roofing Lost

Someone stole 17 rolls of felt asphalt roll roofing from a storage yard at 3510 Buena Vista ave., in Lemon Grove over the week-end.

The roofing belonged to William B. Fetty.

Dog Grooming Firm Opened By Mrs. Butzin

Martha Butzin, a native of Lemon Grove, has opened a pet groming facility at 2766 Citronella st. in Lemon Grove.

Mrs. Butzin started in the grooming business about four years ago in Chula Vista and in August opened her grooming shop in Lemon Grove.

She now has won three ribbons for the animals she groomed.

Grooming, according to Mrs. Butzin, includes bathing brushing and clipping. It also includes toe-nail clipping. Her specialty is big dogs. Few groomers handle the big ones, she said.

Poodles and terriers require a lot of grooming. "There are 8-10 basic styling forms for poodles," she said. "Terriers, too, lend themselves to multi-styling," she said.

Mrs. Butzin was born in what is now the Bryan Court Guest Home on Bryan Court. Her mother, Mrs. Chambers, owned it until recently when she moved to Phoenix.

Mrs. Butzin's facility is a block north of Palm st. on Citronella adjacent Hi-Lo Liquor store and she says "business is growing well. People with pets want them to be well-cared for and handsome. We fill that need."

"There's more to grooming than people think," she said.

Burglars Plague Valley Homes

Generator Stolen

A Honda gas generator was stolen from a truck parked at the home of Arthur Forest Brown, 1033 Woodhaven, Spring Valley.

The generator, valued at $500, belonged to the Gary Martin Plumbing Co.

It was taken between 11 p.m. and 8 a.m. Sunday, September 29.

Clock and Guns

Furniture, guns, stereo equipment, a tool box and a grandfather clock were stolen from the home of Lawrence E. Graver Sunday.

It was not known how the thieves entered the premises and no clues could be found.

Tools Taken

Tools and tool boxes valued at $600 were taken from the home of William E. Moell, 3171 Central ave., Spring Valley, Friday night, September 27.

The material was taken from his garage and no clues were evident.

16-Year Olds Charged With Curfew and Pot

Two 16-year old males were intercepted by sheriff's deputies just after midnight Sunday while they were loading bicycles in a pickup they were driving.

There was nothing illegal about the bikes, the deputies agreed — but there was that thing about curfew.

Examination of the vehicle, which had the strong odor of marijuana produced 21.3 grams of marijuana; two pipes and zig-zag papers.

The youngsters said they had been to a movie and admitted possession and use of the pot.

Television Stolen

A burglar entered the home of Harrison Lee Boyd, 2053 Terracina st., in Spring Valley and took his Panasonic television set valued at $1.50.

UW-CHAD Chairmen Name Group Leaders

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley volunteer leadership for the 1974 United Way/CHAD First Combined Campaign has now been fully recruited by the two community chairmen.

Lemon Grove chairman James V. Dorman has recruited Carl C. Lacki, branch manager of Lemon Grove Bank of America, to head the business division.

Public service division accounts will be under the chairmanship of Dr. Robert E. Sutton, district superintendent of the Lemon Grove School District. Dr. Frank S. Drongowski will serve as professional division chairman.

The Lemon Grove community goal figure for the 1974 United Way/CHAD First Combined Campaign is $11,600.

Spring Valley co-chairmen Glenn Boelter and Naomi Marshall have appointed Richard S. Tazelaar of Household Finance Corporation as the business division chairman.

In the business division, the following have been recruited to make personal calls: Alex Bradley, branch manager Home Federal Savings & Loan Assn.; Burton P. Hodge, Hodge Insurance Co.; Mrs. Glenn Boelter; Joe Stevens, Ox Bow Inn; Larry Symonds, L & H Vacuum; John E. Blackford; Gregory Barker, Barmac Furniture and Upholstering; Richard M. Cline, store manager Sears, Roebuck & Co..; Mrs. Hazel Sorensen, Mode-O-Day; RayDene Shepard, Bank of America; Henry G. Perez, contractor; and David Phillips, Monte Vista High School.

A goal figure of $5,400 has been established for Spring Valley in the 1974 United Way/CHAD campaign.

The 1974 combined campaign of United Way and CHAD will cover San Diego County's business and professional establishments, and city, county and state employees. Additional campaigns among federal employees (solicited through CFC-Combined Federal Campaign), through AID, and in residential areas, as well as membership enrollments, individual gift solicitations and traditional fund raising events sponsored by constitutent agencies, will continue as before.

BoA Depot For Honduras Aid

Bank of Ameica says it will accept cash contributions for Honduran victims of Hurricane Fifi at any of its 1,033 community offices in California.

Money collected will be donated to CARE, the international relief agency, to fund its ongoing activities in the storm-damaged areas.

The bank acted in response to a request from the Honduras Association and the Honduran Consul General Guillermo Caceres Pineda in San Francisco for stepped-up emergency assistance.

"The situation in Honduras is very sad," he said. "Although basic needs for food and shelter are being met, hundreds of children have no families, and thousands of families have no homes. The task of rebuilding homes, schools and hospitals still lies ahead. We thank the people of California for the compassionate help they have given since the disaster struck, but call on them now for even more generous support."

Checks made available to "Aid Honduras" may be mailed or delivered in person to any Bank of America office in California.

Laundry Loses Coins

The Otway Coin-Laundry at 9819 Campo rd., Casa de Oro was burglarized of $150 in coins and a small FM-AM radio Sunday night.

The culprit pried open a closet door and took the valuables.

Counterfeiter Makes $20 of $1

An ingenious counterfeiter is making a profit in Lemon Grove this week.

He converts a one dollar bill into a twenty and does it so convincingly that local merchants will take it as a twenty.

One was passed Tuesday at Winchell's Donuts and that's adjacent to the sheriff's office.

Business firms are warned to be on the lookout for the bogus bills. They are discernible upon close scrutiny — especially at each of the four corners.

Another clue: Twenty dollar bills do not carry the picture of George Washington.

TREASURY WATCHDOG — Congressman Clair W. Burgener (R-Rancho Santa Fe) gets handshake from H. Vernon Scott, President of the National Associated Businessmen, as he is presented the NAB's "Watchdog of the Treasury Award." The award, given each two year term, was presented to Burgener in view of his voting record which went against excess government spending 83.3% of the time.

1st Birthday For Delucas

Fred Deluca came to this country from France in 1953, where he had been an auto mechanic.

Then he joined Lube Equipment, a firm that services gasoline stations in San Diego. Last year he saw the Broadway Texaco station at Broadway and Massachusetts and decided to go into business for himself.

It is the largest filling station in Lemon Grove — four bays. So he bought it from Molly Mouillesseaux.

Now he and his wife Madeline are lighting a candle on their station's first anniversary cake. She works with him.

He said he intends to expand his mobile home service department and add a car wash.

The station is a mobilehome Pargas station, a dump center and maintenance headquarters for mobilehomes.

Gas Rates Rise

LOS ANGELES — The California Public Utilities Commission has granted San Diego Gas & Electric authority to increase electric rates $10,167,000 a year to offset soaring fuel costs.

The increase is attributable to continuing increases in prices of fuel oil and natural gas needed for generation of electricity and to the decreasing availability of natural gas and nuclear energy.

The utility was seeking a $23,838,000 increase, but in trimming the request, the PUC said it disagreed with the company's estimates of natural gas availability and pricing of fuel oil.

The increase will amount to 3.5% for domestic, 4% for agriculture, 3.8% for commercial, 5.3% for industrial, and 2.2% for public authority.

Bills for the typical residential usage of 500 kilowatt hours a month will go up 60 cents.

HIT MUSICAL — Sindy McKay, David Meyers and Brian Mitchell are featured in the cast of the internationally renowned "Godspell" which opened Tuesday for a limited run through November 10 at the Old Globe Theatre in Balboa Park.

'Godspell' at Old Globe

The international hit "Godspell" opened Tuesday at the Old Globe Theatre in Balboa Park. The musical was conceived and originally directed by John-Michael Tebelak with music and new lyrics by Stephen Schwartz. It has played in every major city around the world and is still playing Off-Broadway since its opening in the spring of 1971.

Director Jack Tygett describes the show as "a symbol of the Christian New Testament concept of a God of love and understanding. Our production consumates this concept by presenting the bible as a joyous celebration."

The work is based on the book Feast of Fools by Harvey Cox and on the gospel of Matthew with a few exerpts from Luke and John.

Audiences will be treated to a variety of entertainment including sight gags, parodies, pantomimes, puns and musical numbers reminiscent of vaudeville routines.

"Godspell" will be performed nightly except Monday at 8 p.m. through November 10. Sunday afternoon performances are scheduled October 13, 19, and 27, November 2 and 10 at 2 p.m.

Local Baha'is Convene Sunday

The Baha'is of Southern California, excluding the Los Angeles metropolitan area, will hold their annual district convention on Sunday, October 13 at the Bahia Motor Hotel in San Diego.

The primary purpose of the convention is to elect the four delegates who will represent this district at the national convention to be held in the Baha'i Temple in Wilmette, Illinois next April. Another vital purpose of the district convention is to allow for a wide exchange of views on the important affairs of the Baha'i Faith in this area.

Baha'i elections are unique because nominations and electioneering are forbidden, permitting the participant to vote only for those whom he believes are best qualified to serve.

Tijuana YMCA Will Benefit from Bar-B-Q

A World Service Family Barbecue is planned for Sunday, Oct. 13 at Crown Point on Mission Bay from 12:30 to 5 p.m. Proceeds will go to the Tijuana YMCA.

Paul Markel, chairman of the Metropolitan World Service Committee and Lemon Grove resident, said that the picnic is intended as a gesture "in building international understanding and world peace."

Everyone is invited and tickets may be purchased at the John Davis YMCA, 8881 Dallas, La Mesa.

El Cajon Dance Date

A high school dance is held Saturday, October 19, from 8 to 11:30 p.m. at El Cajon High School, admission $1.

"Free Ride" will perform, featuring Vince Molina, lead guitar; Scott Baris, keyboard; Sam Baris, drums; Mark Thompson, bass guitar; and Steve McCullun, lead singer. The dance is sponsored by the El Cajon Police Department.

'Religious Emphasis Week' — A New Adventure for Grossmont College

Who ever heard of a religion uprising on campus?

If uprisings are organized to inform, that's what it'll be on Grossmont Community College campus October 14-18 according to John Burdick, Dean of Student Activities at Grossmont.

Under the delineation of "Religious Emphasis Week", representatives of the various religious philosophies will be on campus telling audiences of their beliefs.

"It's more of a rally," Burdick said, "It's never been done here before. But there seems to be a need for it in light of the apparent religious reawakening that has come to colleges.

"It is not a program to 'save' or convert. It is more of a vehicle for those who want to find their way among religious concepts," he said.

"Yes there are legal arguments on both sides of the question about religion on campus but this week-long program will give students and non-students alike a chance to find out what it's about.

The classes are free and the public may attend.

The program:

Monday—

11-12, room 551A—Christian Science, Ms. Hoflund.

11-12 Rally Platform — "Psalm 150" Live rock, music and story.

12-1, room 220 "Multi-Media show" Our Lady of Grace Church, sponsor.

2-3, room 575— Youth Evangelism" J. W. Denny.

3-4, room 575 — Rev. Joseph Carroll, Our Lady of Grace.

7 p.m., Student Center—Living Spring Water Group (music).

Rev. Gene Huntsman, counselor, El Cajon Baptist church.

Tuesday—

2-4, room 757 — Rabbi Martin Cohen, Temple Emanuel.

Wednesday—

9-2 — Open Visits Day—Church affiliated groups will man tables in front of the Student Center for discussion and answering questions.

11-12, Rally platform — Drama and pantomime.

11-1, room 220 — Dead Sea Scrolls, Dr. Truman Madsen.

11-12, room 551A — Rabbi Pollock.

2-3, room 575 — Sister Renee, campus ministry.

3-4, room 575 — Sister Judith Cramer, Rosary High school.

7 p.m., Student Center — Apostolic Faith Choir and Dr. Truman Madsen.

Thursday—

2-4, room 575— Rabbi Bruce Charnov, Naval Hospital.

3:30-5, room 544A — Introduction to "Eckancar", illustrated.

Friday—

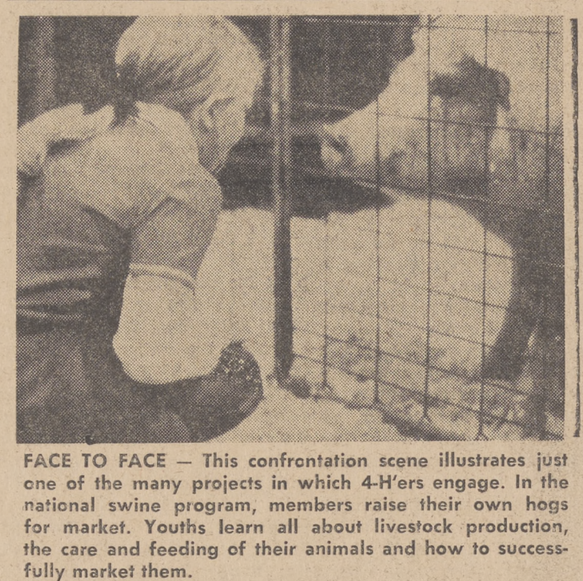
12-1, room 220 — Repeat of "Multi-Media Show."

All day — outreach program for all students.

2:15-4, room 220 — Dr. Duane T. Gish, Inst. of Creation Research.

4 p.m., Student Center — Testimonial and felowship, refreshments. Duane Huff, Church of Latter Day Saints.

Dean Burdick said that all sessions are open and such sessions are open to questions and answers. No charge of any kind is made.



FACE TO FACE — This confrontation scene illustrates just one of the many projects in which 4-H'ers engage. In the national swine program, members raise their own hogs for market. Youths learn all about livestock production, the care and feeding of their animals and how to successfully market them.

Neighborhood Concept For Career Shop Van

Providing the Spring Valley area with a neighborhood career information center is the goal of the Career Shopping Van located at the South Spring Valley Shopping Center, according to George Murphy, one of the counselors staffing the Van.

Murphy, who is also the director and a counselor at the El Cajon Adult Career Guidance Center, said the Van is an attempt to provide a fixed site career guidance service.

One of the problems in career guidance, said Murphy, is that one counseling session is seldom enough time to provide an individual with the information necessary to make a good decision on a future career.

"The Van will allow more in-depth counseling," said Murphy. "Its location will allow those in the neighborhood who are seeking counseling to visit us two or three times if that's necessary."

"We can also provide information on financial aid available to individuals wishing to enroll in some sort of training or college course," said Murphy.

In the three years since the Adult Career Guidance Center opened, Murphy said, they have primarily served the "middle class dis-advantaged". Murphy said the "middle class dis-advantaged" were individuals who were employed in jobs which provided adequate income, but were not rewarding in the nature of the work.

"Most people who visit us do so from job dissatisfaction rather than economic motivation," Murphy said.

Those associated with the Career Shopping Van expect a similar group to take advantage of the facility, which is at the corner of Jamacha blvd. and Sweetwater rd.

"You could sum up our services at both the guidance center and the Van," said Murphy, "by saying we serve people who are choosing a career, changing a career or adjusting to a career."

The Van is open from 10 to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 10 to 6 p.m. Friday, and 10 to 3 p.m. Saturday. The phone number is 466-1434.

Get Credit for What You Know

How often have you wished that you could get educational credit for the things you have learned in life—for that on-the-job training, or the adult education course you took at night? Well, you can. Credit that can count towards a high school diploma or even a college degree. And that can help you:

—improve your job opportunities;

—prepare for a new career; and

—achieve a higher level of personal satisfaction.

In a booklet called Get Credit for What You Know, the Department of Labor urges interested adults to check their eligibility for high school and college educational credit. Copies of the book are available for 25 cents from Consumer Information, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

Even if it has been years since you left school, you can get the equivalent of a high school diploma without going back to a classroom—by taking a high school equivalency examination. It is designed to test individual competence in certain subject areas. When you pass the General Educational Development (GED) tests, you will get a certificate accredited by your State department of education that is accepted on the same basis as a high school diploma. You may already have the knowledge to pass the examinations without even realizing it!

Whether or not you have graduated from high school, you can also get college credit from many schools by taking special examinations. More than 1,300 colleges and universities throughout the country grant credit toward completion of degree requirements through the College-Level Examination Program (CLEP).

4-H Week 'Makes It Happen'

By Michele Nierodzinski

"We Can Make It Happen" is the theme of the National 4-H Club Week being observed by club members throughout the country through Sunday. The local Jamul Chaparros 4-H club will close out the week with an exhibit at the Parkway Plaza Shopping Center.

The local 4-H members will be on hand to display animals, clothing and foods that exemplify several of the projects offered by the youth organization and to answer questions. Exhibit begins at 10 a.m.

The Jamul 4-H Club invites everyone to come out to the shopping center and help them "make it happen."

Course will be conducted Tuesday evenings at 7:30. The YMCA can be reached at 466-4161.

This Week's RECIPE

Salute Columbus with this Italian Dish

To celebrate Christopher Columbus' historic landing in America on October 12, 1492, discover a tasty New World main dish — one with the flavor of Old Italy. To prepare Navigator-Os Stuffed Peppers, just fill par-boiled green peppers with those delicious canned beef raviolas in meat sauce (they're round—in true Columbus spirit, browned bulk sausage, and garlic powder. Bake and top with a sprinkling of mozzarella cheese. "Delicioso!"

Any explorer — whether 'round-the-world navigator or creative family meal planner — will welcome this savory and satisfying main dish. Keep the recipe at hand for adventure-some, easy-fixing "eating in the round" for Columbus Day, or any day.

Navigator-Os Stuffed Peppers

4 large green peppers
¾ pound bulk sausage
2 cans (15 ounces each) Beef Raviolas in Meat Sauce
⅛ teaspoon garlic powder
¼ cup shredded mozzarella cheese.

Remove tops and seeds from peppers. In boiled salted water, cook peppers about 5 minutes; drain. meanwhile, in a skillet, brown sausage; stir to separate meat. Pour off fat. Add raviolas and garlic; spoon into peppers arrange in 2-quart casserole. Bake at 350° F. for 25 minutes or until done. Top with cheese; bake until cheese melts. Makes 4 servings.

Applications Taken For Miss Calif. Teen

On July 12, 1975 at the Royal Inn in Anaheim, some lucky person will be crowned Miss California Teen-Ager.

Girls who are between the ages of 13 and 17 and state residents are eligible to compete. They will be judged on poise, personality, appearance, and scholastic achievement. There will be no talent or swim suit competition. Contestants will also write an essay on the pageant theme, "Why I Am Proud To Be An American".

Applications to compete in the 1975 pageant may be obtained by sending a self-addressed envelope to the Official Certification and Public Relations Office, P.O. Box 406, Rockton, Illinois 61072.

County Plans Metric Center

The County Department of Education has announced plans for a metric education center as a means of coordinating the transition to the metric system of measurements.

Project director Jim Lawson lists four basic services proposed for the center: to coordinate and disseminate authoritative information on metric education from state and national sources; to act as a data and resource bank of information and materials for school districts and metric coordinators; to provide training and information services to implement metric programs in school districts; and to organize and train task teams to meet identical needs such as teacher training and materials analysis.

Golf Academy Planned for North County

The 27-hole Whispering Palms Golf and Country Club in Rancho Santa Fe, in the suburbs of San Diego has been selected as the location for the new San Diego Golf Academy for professional golfers.

Charles Pierce, president of San Diego Golf Academy, said the new school, designed to train professionals for management careers at golf courses and country clubs, will open on Jan. 27.

The demanding two-year curriculum will combine instruction in all facets of the game of golf as well as college academic courses in business and management.

The specialized courses are designed to prepare future golf professionals to operate country clubs, manage golf courses and work in various management positions in the golf industry.

Classrooms are being established in the Administrative Building of Whispering Palms on Villa de la Valle St. in Rancho Santa Fe. In addition to playing on the championship 27-hole course, Academy students will receive practical instruction on pro shop, restaurant and clubhouse operations using the facilities at Whispering Palms.

Area Residents To Help Shrine Project

Spring Valley-Lemon Grove residents will express their support of Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children Saturday night when they attend the 30th Shrine charity football game pitting San Diego State against Fresno State in San Diego Stadium.

Net proceeds from the grid classic, scheduled to start promptly at 7:15 p.m., go toward operation of the 22 Shrine orthopedic and burn hospitals in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Spring Valley resident James A. Stiteler, member of the Al Bahr Temple Mounted Patrol, said spectators will enjoy 45 minutes of pre-game pageantry performed by some 400 San Diego area high school musicians, military installation bands and Shrine units and also will see the traditional half-time fireworks display.

In addition, he said fans will be introduced to youngsters who have been patients in Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children as well as burn institutes operated by the fraternal order.

In keeping with the family aspect of the charity contest, seats have been scaled from $2.50 to $7 with all seats reserved. Tickets are available at San Diego Stadium's Gate "F" or from any Shriner.

Unser Joins Formula 5000 Field

RIVERSIDE— Bobby Unser has joined two other Indianapolis 500 winners, Mario Andretti and Johnny Rutherford, in entering the final race of the Formuula 5000 Championship October 27 at the Riverside International Raceway.

Unser will drive the same Dan Gurney-prepared Olsonite Eagle that carried him to this year's USAC driving championship. He started the season winning the California 500 at Ontario and was second to Rutherford at Indianapolis.

Andretti has competed in all Formula 5000 races this year, winning two and leading all but one in his Viceroy Lola.

The Riverside Grand Prix weekend Oct. 26-27 will mean double-duty for Unser and Rutherford. Besides the Formula 5000 race, both men will be competing in the second and third legs of the International Race of Champions, a series of match races in identical Camaros.

Park Hours Change For Winter Season

County Parks began seasonal winter hours October 1st.

The new hours for camping and picnic grounds are 9:30 a.m.-6 p.m.

Camping parks will remain open to campers Friday and Saturday nights until 9 p.m.

Camping parks within the County are: Agua Caliente, Dos Picos, Heise Park, Lake Jennings, Lake Morena, Lower Otay, Potrero, and Vallecito.

County picnic grounds include: El Monte, Felicita, Flinn Springs, Lindo Lake, Live Oak, Mt. Selix, Quail Gardens, Palomar, Pine Valley, and San Dieguito Park.

Mariners Final Pre-season Tonight against Phoenix

The San Diego Mariners play their final exhibition game before the start of 1974-75 World Hockey Association activity tonight when they host the Phoenix Roadrunners. The 7:30 p.m. San Diego Sports Arena contest is offered at one-half off on all ticket prices to ladies.

San Diego, currently 2-1 in pre-season play, begins WHA action with a road game at Phoenix Wednesday, October 16, then open home activity with a Saturday, October 19 visit by defending league champion Houston.

Phoenix and San Diego were heated rivals when both were Western Hockey League members until last year and the spirited battles are expected to continue now that the duo is involved in WHA competition.

The Mariners dropped a 2-1 overtime verdict to Vancouver after posting a 3-0 whitewash of the Blazers coupled with a 4-3 win over the National Hockey League California Golden Seals.

Player-coach Harry Howell has pared nine men from his training camp roster with nine more cuts still to be made. Already gone are goalies Robert Blanchet and Dennis Kemp, defensemen Gary Sittler, centermen Brian Bye, Fermin Royer and Claude Chartre and wingers Bob McKinstry and Darold Knowles.

Three-game scoring statistics show winger Wayne Rivers leading San Diego with three goals and center Brian Morenz next with two. Rivers and center Ray Adduono are tops in point production, both with four points.

Chargers, Oakland To Tangle Sunday at 1

The San Diego Chargers tackle the powerhouse Oakland Raiders at the San Diego Stadium Sunday. Kickoff is 1 p.m.

The game was originally scheduled for Oakland and switched to San Diego because of the baseball playoffs. Charger tickets marked Nov. 17 will be used Sunday.

The Chargers (1-3) of coach Tommy Prothro, paced by rookie running back Don Woods, who stormed into prominence with successive games of 157 and 133 yards, and a stalwart offensive line, which cleared the way for Woods, has allowed only three quarterback sacks in four games.

The Raiders (3-1) of coach John Madden features the passing of Kenny Stabler and a defense which has 13 interceptions and 12 quarterback sacks.

The game will be broadcast by Andy Musser and Dick Van Raaphorst on KSDO (1130) and the Charger network. NBC television plans are dependent on the baseball playoffs this week.

Persons attending Sunday's game will receive a bonus. Each ticket stub will entitle the bearer to a 50 cents discount on week nights and matinees for the new film, "The Longest Yard," starring Burt Reynolds and Eddie Albert, at Fashion Valley 4 theaters. As of Monday, there were 20,904 tickets remaining to be sold for the Raider game.

Oakland Leads

Oakland leads the series, 15-11-2, and has not lost to San Diego since 1968. The Chargers tied the Raiders in 1970 and 1972. In 1973, the Raiders won 27-14 at San Diego and 31-3 at Oakland.

Last week the Chargers lost to the Philadelphia Eagles, 13-7, before 37,460 at San Diego Stadium.

Despite the 133 yards by Woods and 286 yards of total offense, the Chargers managed only the one touchdown on a six-yard pass from Dan Fouts to Garry Garison.

The Charger defense allowed the Eagles only one touchdown drive as strong side linebacker Carl Gersbach led the way with 10 tackles and three pass deflections. The other Philadelphia touchdown came on a 46-yard fumble return.

"We played our first bad game today," said coach Tommy Prothro. "Maybe Philadelphia is making people look bad. They have given up 34 points in four games."

Eagles coach Mike McCormack said, "San Diego is a good football team. Their offensive and defensive lines are outstanding."

Woods for Bonner

Don Woods got his first chance to carry the ball for San Diego in the second half of the season's second game at Cincinnati because starter Glen Bonner was injured.

Woods gained 21 yards against the Bengals, 157 against the Dolphins and 133 against the Eagles for a total of 311 yards with a sparkling 7.6 average.

Bonner is expected to be ready to play against Oakland. The free agent rookie from Washington was the Chargers' top runner during preseason games and rushed for 113 yards in his 1½ NFL games.

Oakland Update

American Conference West champions in six of the last seven years, Oakland is the team to beat again this year.

After a 21-20 loss to Buffalo, the Raiders defeated Kansas City, 27-7; Pittsburgh, 17-0, and Cleveland, 40-24.

Stabler has thrown seven touchdown passes. Clarence Davis is the leading runner with 270 yards and a 5.0 average. Cliff Branch has caught 12 passes and Fred Biletnikoff 11.

Defensively, the Raiders are off to their best start since 1967 by allowing 52 points in four games. Their pass defense has given up only 90 yards per game.

The Chargers travel to Denver to play the Broncos on Sunday, Oct. 20.

Supernationals' At Ontario Fri.

ONTARIO, Calif.—More than 60 fuel dragsters, including the national record-holding machine owned and driven by defending champion Don Garlits, begins "banzai" qualifying attempts Friday with the start of the 3-day annual National Hot Rod Assn. Supernationals drag races.

This year's supernationals, final event on the NHRA national schedule for 1974, will be run as part of a double-header, sharing the bill with the NHRA World Finals contested previously at Amarillo, Tex.

The double program features the sport's best all-pro show in the Supernationals and its ultimate sportsman event in the World Finals.

The Supernationals phase of the event will be open competition while the World Finals portion will be restricted to the most successful sportsman racers in the NHRA's annual regional World Championship Series competition.

Because there are only 16 berths available in each of the three pro categories, qualifying, particularly in Top Fuel, may provide as good a show as the Sunday eliminations.

The qualifying pace should be particularly intense Saturday when most of the drivers will be on "last ditch" attempts to make the lineup for Sunday's 1 p.m. eliminations.

Q's On Road As Oct. 20 Home Opening Date Nears

The San Diego Conquistadors will play the second of their two-set set-to tonight in Cedar City, Utah following a first-of-the-pre-season game last night in Tucson.

Both games have the Utah Stars as the Q's antagonists.

The Q's then take a night off, go back to Tucson for a Saturday night game against the St. Louis Spirits.

The Spirits, formerly the Carolina Cougars, are led by a familiar name to college basketball fans, Marvin Barnes of Providence. Marvin was drafted second in the country right behind La Mesan Bill Walton. St. Louis out-bid the NBA for Barnes and he is now a Spirit. Last week against the Denver Nuggets in an ABA pre-season game, Marvin tallied 28 points.

Another St. Louis rookie that will be making his first appearance against the Q's is forward Gus Gerard. He played his college ball in Virginia and in that same pre-season game against Denver the 6'8" first year pro tallied 30 points.

General manager Alex Groza is running the club and he will take 13 players with him on the three game trip. Those players are forwards George Adams, Tim Bassett, Travis Grant, Stew Johnson, centers Caldwell Jones and Reggie Royals and guards Greg Lee, Richie O'Connor, Art Williams, Billy Shepherd, Jim O'Brien, Bo Lamar and Billy Harris.

The three pre-season games by the Q's this week will be the only three the club will play in preparation for their October 20 season opener against the New York Nets at the San Diego Sports Arena.

Tickets for the home opener against New York on October 20 will go on sale Monday. Tickets will be available at the Arena Box office and all Arena ticket outlets..... The three pre-season games will not be broadcast but all regular season games, home and away will be heard on KOGO Radio 60 with Frank Sims.

ABA Council Named

NEW YORK — Michael H. Goldberg, a New York attorney, has been named counsel for the American Basketball Assn., it was announced by Commissioner Tedd Munchak.

The 31-year-old Goldberg, a lifelong resident of New York City, and a graduate of New York U. and the St. John's Law School, joins the ABA from the firm of Russo, Dubin and Goldberg, where he was a partner.

Previously, Goldberg had served five years with the Securities & Exchange Commission as its Chief of the Branch of Small Issues, at its New York Regional Office.

Scottish Games At Balboa Sunday

San Diego's First Annual Scottish Highland Games will be held in Balboa Stadium Sunday.

The centuries-old Highland Games are rich in tradition, pageantry, color and excitement. The color, massed bagpipe music, and displays of athletic strength and physical grace at traditional Scottish Highland Games have perennial appeal to native Scots and visitors.

One of the outstanding features of the San Diego Games will be the first official U.S. visit of the famed Edinburgh City Police Pipe Band — flown to San Diego from Scotland by British Calendonian Airways. This 24-member 8-times world champion band will be featured during the official ceremonies at 1 p.m.

Gates open at 8:30 a.m. Tickets available through most major employee recreation centers and at the game Sunday. Tickets are $2.50; students and seniors citizens pay $1.50 and children under 5 are free.

Mayon-Heair Battle for 'City Crown'

Highly regarded Jimmy Heair and red hot Mexican Miguel "Mike" Mayon will mix it up this Friday at the Coliseum in a "city lightweight championship."

More important than the local "crown" is the ring future of Heair, which appears to hang in the balance of Friday's battle.

Back from a courageous if not successful attempt to defect Hector Thompson, the top ranking lightweight contender, Cowboy Jimmy desperately needs an impressive victory over Mayon to earn a shot at the belt of world champion Roberto Duran.

Mayon, a 22 year old youngster, took San Diego by storm while Heair was struggling in Australia with Thompson. On back-to-back weeks, Miguel, a native of Sonora, Mexico, stopped veteran Jimmy Robertson and decisioned Vic Abraham in his last two local outings. At the time he quit on his stoll in the eighth round, Robertson was the fifth ranked junior welterweight in the world.

Last Week

Renato Garcia, cream of the Chilean middlewight crop, registered his 14th consecutive victory Friday night over Chu Cho Garcia of Reynosa, Mexico.

It was not the artistic success that fight buffs expected. Renato appeared to tire at several points in the campaign and ChuCho failed to provide the brawling offense for which he is noted.

Renato lost a point in the fourth of the ten-round set-to for hitting ChuCho low. The voting was 5-2 and 8-1 with one judge calling it even.

Renao was hailed as the coming champ until he lost two fights during a change in managers. While his effort Friday wasn't the best he is capable of making, he may have been cautious because of ChuCho's ability to deck those who try to brawl with him. It is also likely that Renato's skill forced ChuCho to be more cautious than usual. No one has ever dropped ChuCho. Renato's record is now 28-2.

In a heavyweight fight Carlos Tijuerna of Bakersfield dropped Chuck Zellers of Los Angeles in 1:24 of the first round after dropping him for an eight count moments before. It was Tijernia's fourth fight and his fourth knockout.

In a welterweight meeting Jerry Robinson won a unanimous decision over Mark Thomas. Robinson, a sleepy-eyed athlete in the dressing room, becomes a dynamo in the ring. He won the decision easily although he lost a point for holding and hitting.

In a six-round welterweight scrap, Javier Muniz decked Renaldo Victoria at 2:03 of the second round.

Fight time is 8 o'clock each Friday.

Young Prospects Hold Future For Padres Says Pete Bavasi

The 1974 season was one of two goals for the San Diego Padres. When the curtain came down on the campiagn, the club stood at an even .500 in this department and could easily have accomplished both goals with a bit of help from Dame Fortune.

"Looking back at this past season can only bring mixed emotions," said Padres General Manager Peter Bavasi.

"We started out with two distinct goals in mind. First, we wanted to draw a million fans to the ballpark. Owner Ray Kroc had hoped when he purchased the club that attendance in 1974 would reach 750,000, but he also felt that San Diego would support the Padres and by playing exciting and interesting ball attendance might hit a million.

"Our second goal," continued the youthful GM, "was for the Padres to improve in the won-lost column and finish higher in the standings.

"We did accomplish our first goal as we bettered the one million mark (1,075,399) in season attendance. In fact, our crowds reflected quite a jump as our previous club record for a single season was 644,272 in 1972.

Tolan's Loss Hurts

"As for our second goal, we felt the Padres were well on their way to moving up in the standings until around midseason when we were struck by some untimely injuries to important personnel. Probably the key to the whole situation was losing outfielder Bobby Tolan for almost two full months. Bobby was hitting close to .290 when he tore some cartilege in his right knee and had to undergo surgery.

"At the time he went out he was establishing himself as a real team leader and was in the midst of some of the longest batting streaks in the history of the franchise.

Now, what's past is past and the look is for the future.

"I had high hopes of finishing out of the cellar and winning a lot more games than we actually did," related rookie skipper John McNamara. "Our pitching was a sore spot, especially the bullpen, but I see nothing but good things for this club in the immediate future."

Bavasi echoes his manager's feelings by pointing out some of the positive points.

"We have some exceptional young prospects in our system who we feel will be assets to the club in the very near future," asserted Bavasi. "Our pitching staff is young and with a season to mature should be quite sound for next year. We know they have the arms and the ability, all they needed was a season in the majors to gain experience."

25 in Training

The Padres will also be counting heavily this winter on their new instructional league club in Arizona. The Pads will have a working squad of around 25 players with some of the varsity members like pitchers Dave Freisleben and Dan Spillner popping over for a few weeks of individual work.

"I believe this instructional league club will be a tremendous help to the Padres," Bavasi said. "The team is being operated strictly on an individual basis for the young players we feel will provide us with the club of tomorrow.

"Based on player performances at the Walla Walla Class A farm club this past summer, it appears we had a fine summer free agent draft. This instructional league club will feature many of these same players and, if they continue to develop the way we believe they can, they could easily skip one or two years of development in the minor league system."

But, for now, the word is rest and recuperation for the 1975 campaign as the players take a few months off and the wheeling and dealing begins on the front office level around the majors.

USIU Puts Streak On Line Saturday

Unbeaten USIU puts a two-game win streak on the line this week in a home game against Claremont-Mudd College. Game time is Saturday 7:30 p.m. in Balboa Stadium.

Although the Westerners played the Stags back in 1958 in their first year of football, only six games have been played since that time with USIU leading with 3 wins, 2 losses and one tie.

The last time the schools met in 1963 the Westerners won 33-12, and they also won in 1962, 24-13.

Claremont, coached by John Zenda, is a young club with only five seniors. Bill Nash, a 195-pound veteran fullback, keys the offense and receives good blocking up front from guard Bob Mennis.

The defense is led by Reggie Cox, middle guard; Matt Kobe, linebacker; and Wordell Armstrong at safety.

The Westerners, who have displayed much better defense than offense, have downed Redlands 36-0 and last week scored two times in the fourth quarter to top La Verne 13-3.

Aztecs To Meet Fresno In Shrine Benefit Game

Fresno State U. will try to make it two upsets in a row Saturday when the Bulldogs meet San Diego U. at 8 p.m. in San Diego Stadium in the 20th Al Bahr Shrine Charity Football Game.

The Bulldogs come into Saturday's contest with a 1-4 record, but are coming off a big upset win over previously unbeaten New Mexico State last week, 9-7. Fresno won the game on three field goals by Al Garcia, the final one coming 34 yards out with just 11 seconds to play. Garcia's other efforts were from 24 and 37 yards and he was named the PCAA's Offensive Player of the Week.

Fresno started its winning drive from its own 20 yard line. Quarterback Nef Cortez had a hot passing hand in the game, hitting 17 of 31 passes for 294 yards. Tight end Calvin Young caught six passes for 86 yards. The Bulldogs had 355 yards total offense and New Mexico State 305.

Craig Penrose is expected to start at quarterback for the Aztecs with Bill Kramer and Frank Geary also in the backfield. Kramer rushed for 131 yards on 17 carries two games ago against Tampa and last game against Texas (El Paso) he had 126 yards on 15 carries. If Kramer were to gain 100 yards rushing against Fresno State he would become the first back since Jim Allison in 1964 to gain over 100 yards rushing in three straight games. It has been 100 games since an Aztec has had three 100 yard games in a row.

The pre-game Shrine pageantry is slated to start at 7:15 p.m. with kickoff at 8 p.m. or one-half hour later than normal.

Cajon Speedway Season Attendance Tops 100,000

El Cajon Stock Car runner-up Gary Crossland of Lakeside saved his first main event win for the 100 lap West Coast Championship Round Robin Series at Cajon Speedway—the final night of racing—Saturday night.

4,463 fans cheered when he took the lead on the 56th round and won going away by 6 car lengths over racing buddy Jim Hitt of Lemon Grove, who finished 3rd in points for the season. Season attendance total was 102,428 fans.

El Cajon Stock Car Champion for 1974 Ron Overman of El Cajon started 15th in front of Hitt and came on to take 3rd over local Larry Aufdengarten of San Diego.

The 100 lapper started out in trouble as Tom Zelesky of El Cajon spun in the south turn after tangling with Overman causing a re-start.

Jim Thirkettle, Jim Insolo, Dan Press and Crossland fought a steady race till lap 35 when 2 time champion at Cajon, Pat McIntyre of Spring Valley blew an engine.

After 5 yellow laps, Thirkettle, Oren Prosser of Saugus and Crossland dueled until Gary took second on the 46th lap.

After a 10 lap battle Crossland went to the outside, passing Thirkettle and took over the lead.

The red was out on the 59th lap when Lanny Pemberton came into the infield with a wheel fire.

After the re-start Hugh Pearson blew an engine coming out of the no. 2 turn causing the 3rd yellow.

On the 92nd round Thirkettle, Insolo, and Prosser crashed when Bob Baxter of El Cajon spun in front of them while being lapped, wiping out 2nd, 3rd and 4th places.

When the race resumed Crossland went on to win pulling away.

Cajon Speedway will open April 5, 1975 next season and will see the super stocks running mufflers for the first time.

Rose Bowl Ticket Deadline Nears

"The deadline to submit post cards for the only public sale of tickets to the 1975 Rose Bowl Game is drawing close," according to Tournament of Roses President Paul G. Bryan. "All cards must be postmarked prior to midnight, Oct. 15."

Shortly after the closing deadline, officials of the Tournament of Roses, along with representatives from the participating Big Ten and Pacific-8 football conferences, will conduct a drawing for 3,500 seats at Tournament House in Pasadena. 1,750 names will be drawn. Each will have the opportunity of purchasing two tickets to the 61st Annual Rose Bowl Game on January 1, 1975.

Standard-sized post cards should be sent to: Rose Bowl, P.O. Bin 1800, Pasadena, California 91109. Each card must be identified by the sender's name and address, and must be mailed prior to the October 15 deadline. Letters will not be accepted.

Public Summoned To 'Court House'

A new handball and racquetball club opens this weekend in Spring Valley. Helix Court House consists of six indoor, air-conditioned courts, saunas and men's and women's locker rooms. The exhibition court features a glass observation window.

The grand opening will include door prizes and a special two-for-one discount on court reservations. Reservations in advance can be made by calling 462-8330. Charter memberships are also available.

HCH proprietors Chuck and Betty Weed invite everyone to join them for their grand opening at 9617 Campo rd.

String Snaps; Flores Wins But 2 Races

streak ended and another continued as Agua Caliente Racetrack enjoyed one of its better weekends with attendance and mutuel handles continuing to show gains.

Jockey Ramon Flores saw his string of weekend wins snapped as he won but two events, the first time in nine weeks that he has failed to win four or more races. Flores now has 51 wins to trail Wilfrido Osuna by six victories.

There was not a single ticket winner in the 5-10, so the reserve jackpot climbed to $92,294 and management announced that when the pot goes over $100,000 it will be distributed to winning players with half being placed in the regular pool and the other half being used to start a new reserve jackpot. When the pool goes over $100,000 it will be distributed on the following Sunday, but a single ticket winner could still take the entire amount in the meantime.

The track also announced that post time will be moved to noon starting this Saturday with 12 races to continue throughout October and then to be shortened to 11 after standard time goes into effect.

Stock Cars Race Sunday at S. Bay

Three first-time main event winners, Bob Ballard, Norb Wolf and Benny Dye gun for repeat triumphs Sunday in the MARA Street Stock Car races at the South Bay Park Speedway in Chula Vista.

A field of over 65 cars is expected for the night's 10-event racing card on the ¼ mile clay oval. Racing starts at 7 p.m., preceded by time trials at 6 p.m. and practice runs at 5 p.m.

Ballard, Wolf and Dye have all made their first visits to the winners circle during the past three weeks of racing, upsetting many of the early season point leaders.

A special added attraction on Sunday night's program will be a "Powder Puff Derby" for women drivers. The lady leadfoots will clash in a special 10 lap race.

A 100-lap Open Competition Super-Stock Car racing classic, with a $4,200 purse has been inked for Saturday night, October 19th.

The Interstate Highway System has a safety record nearly twice as good as for all other roads.

'Cay' Special on Ch. 10

The second of eight Bell System Family Theatre specials will be aired October 21 on KGTV-10. The series will continue with the dramatization of Theodore Taylor's novella, "The Cay." Starring James Earl Jones, the story deals with the survival of an old West Indian seaman and a blinded young American boy on a Caribbean cay and how they learn to live together with mutual trust and respect.

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

Well, here we are in yesterday. Everybody seems to be taking a step back and bubbling about how wonderful it was in the old days.

The World is on a nostaliga kick. I wouldn't be a bit surprised if, one of these fine days, someone doesn't blow the whistle for all this gush on one or more commercial interests bent on making money out of yesterday, today.

As far as this corner goes, forget it. Those early years bring back very few good memories. I committed an unpardonable sin. I was born poor. Moreover, I was born in a poor town at a poor time.

The great depression was bad everywhere, but it was worse in factory towns like Buffalo. I remember nurses, cops, firemen and other civil and uncivil servants worked 12 hour shifts and got two days off a month.

Sure bread was 10c a loaf, milk was 12c a quart and cigarettes sold as low as 10c a pack, but even then most folks didn't have the money to eat regularly.

And those are the good memories. During your next siege of nostaliga try to remember cold winters and wood burning stoves in the kitchen. It wasn't quaint. Not everybody had central heating and the kitchen stove doubled as the house warmer.

A glowing stove in the kitchen, when sub-zero temperatures guide the gray dawn over the snow-covered city, may bring back thoughts of warmth and comfort.

But the cruel truth was those glowing stoves often ignited the wall and burned through the kitchen, sometimes gutting the entire house over sleepyheads who were never to awake.

In that day, neighbors opened their hearts to those less fortunate and their homes to those in need. Children of burned out families were spread over the neighhood and oft times a classmate would share your bed and board while his home was being repaired.

Sometimes we had the same friend in more than once in a winter.

Everybody knew fire victims. There were some fatalities, but most of the youngsters we knew were able to unlatch the storm window and jump out into the snow.

Then they would disappear into that great unknown of hospitals for a few weeks, or a few months, then the lucky ones would return with ugly scars worn proudly on their youth.

Sometimes they would be gone for the year, showing up the next September to repeat the school grade never completed.

And for all the pain, disfigurement and lost time, we all agreed it was better to suffer through a fire than "catch" polio.

Remember yesterday as it really was? Remember all the kids in wheelchairs, on crutches, in sickbeds unable to move? Remember how polio epidemics seemed always to hit hardest in the spring and summer? Remember how public swimming pools, movie theaters, beaches and even summer schools were closed?

I remember especially the summer of 1944. The polio death toll in Buffalo topped 40 in June and climbed even higher in July. The July total included my kid brother. He was one of the unlucky ones.

But even those who lived were severely crippled, or lived only in iron lungs. There were few places for treatment and each of those had long waiting lists for admittance.

Thank God for the Shrine. They put up their first orthopedic hositpal in 1922 and have added another almost every year since. They kids that were all but lifeless in body and dead in spirit and breathed hope and purpose into their lives. Rich and poor, all races, all creeds, all children are welcome at their door.

In the 52 years since they began, Shrine Hospitals for crippled children have grown from one to 22, with three specifically created as burn victim centers.

All 22 hospitals are supported from proceeds of Shrine football games staged in cities all over the country. The Al Bahr Shrine of San Diego is sponsoring its 30th such fund raising event Saturday night, when Claude Gilbert's San Diego State University Aztecs host Fresno State at San Diego Stadium.

If you see but one football game a year, this is the one for you. Not only will it be a helluva contest, but it's a Shrine Game. That makes it special. Please don't miss it.

$300 in Coins Taken

Linda Nege Lowe, of 9311 San Diego st., Spring Valley, arriving home at about 8 p.m. Friday, discovered burglars had taken a tape deck worth $250 and $300 in coins. Substantial clues were lacking.

IRS TAX ANSWERS ?

F. S. Schmidt, DISTRICT DIRECTOR, INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. I just sold my house. I understand that I can reduce the taxable profit from the sale by taking into account additions made to the basis of my property. To what "additions" does this rule apply?

A. The basis or cost of property should be increased by adding to it: the cost of improvements having a life of more than one year, purchase commissions, legal fees, such as the cost of defending and perfecting title (including title insurance) or the cost of obtaining a reduction of an assessment levied against property to pay for local benefits, certain finance charges, interest and taxes you have elected to capitalize and all other capital expenditures. The adjusted basis is subtracted from your sales price to determine the gain on the sale.

For more information, see IRS Publication 523, "Tax Information on Selling Your Home". It's available free from your IRS office.

Q. My uncle died recently. In his will he named me executor of his estate. How much time do I have to file a Federal estate tax return?

A. An estate tax return must be filed whenever the deceased leaves an estat valued at more than $60,000. The deadline for filing is nine months after date of death.

For more details, see IRS Publication 448, "A Guide to Federal Estate and Gift Taxation." It's available for 50 cents from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Q. I own my firm. Last month, I gave my office manager a $100 watch in recognition of his 25 years of service to the firm. Is this gift subject to the $25 limitation on deduction of business gifts?

A. No. An item of tangible personal property having a cost to the taxpayer of not more than $100 and which is awarded to an employee in recognition of length of service is not subjected to the limitation on business gifts. This means that the entire $100 can be deducted as a business expense.

Q. I'm taking a new job and a big pay cut. Can I use income averaging to reduce the taxes I have paid over the last couple of years?

A. No. Income averaging works only in the reverse of your situation. It is used to reduce taxes on an unusually large amount of income in the present year by averaging the four immediately preceeding years of lower income.

Scouts Gain 2500

The "School Night for Cubbing" program held at most of the elementary schools throughout San Diego County October 2 surpassed expectations when over 2500 new Cub Scouts and over 500 new adult volunteers enrolled in the Scouting program.

El Camino District of the South Bay area enrolled the greatest number with 480 signing up. Grossmont District gained 415 enrollees.

Population is Up In S.D. County

Feel a bit more crowded lately?

The San Diego County Planning Department reports that the population in the county has increased an estimated 15% since the 1970 census. The Department estimates 1,562,100 people are currently residing in the county, an increase of 204,426 over 1970 Census figures.

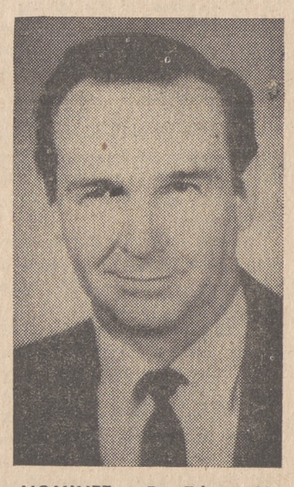
Spring Valley and Lemon Grove are appraised as being more populous than four years ago. The Planning Department give Spring Valley 35,200 residents—up 15.5% and Lemon Grove 24,000—up 3.2% above 1970 figures.

The estimated San Diego County population growth reverses a trend of gradual decline in recent years.

Rotary Club Meetings

The Lemon Grove Rotary Club meets every Monday noon at the VFW Hall, 2885 Imperial.

Spring Valley Rotary meets at Ox Bow Inn, 9816 Campo rd. on Fridays.



NOMINEE — Dr. Edmon V. Kaiser, a chiropractor, who was in San Diego last week seeking support for his race for the governorship, told an audience that property tax rates should be reduced by cutting the cost of government. He is the nominee of the American Independent Party.
He said he is particularly opposed to the practice of increasing the assessed value of property as a disguised method of raising property taxes without increasing property tax rates. In 1964 he served as chairman of Democrats for Goldwater for President and in 1966 and 1968 he was the Democratic candidate for Congress in his Fremont, Calif. district.

Labor Department Grant Gives Jobs to 1,500 Here

WASHINGTON — Rep. Bob Wilson, R-San Diego, said that the Labor Department is issuing $6,166,584 in grants immediately to local governments in the San Diego area to create nearly 1,500 public service jobs in the community.

The grants for San Diego are part of a $415-million program announced last month by President Ford to help states and localities create 85,000 public service jobs nationwide.

Wilson said the City of San Diego would be receiving $3,504,635; the County of San Diego, $2,063,447; the City of Chula Vista, $333,694, and the City of El Cajon, $264,808.

Additionally, he said the state of California has been allocated $57,807,788 to create state government jobs some of which will be established in the San Diego area.

Under the program the new jobs are to be filled by persons residing in the area and who have been unemployed for at least 30 days. He said veterans, former manpower trainees and welfare recipients will be given special consideration in hiring.

He said that grant recipients can begin hiring immediately but within 60 days must furnish the Labor Department with a list of jobs created, monthly wages, a comparison with the wages of similar unsubsidized jobs in the public agency and plans for recruiting employes.

The current $6.1 million in grants is the second such program announced this year by the Labor Department affecting the San Diego area.

In June, Labor Department officials announced that $7 million in federal funds would be pumped into the economy to hire an estimated 900 persons into state and local government jobs under the Public Employment Program.

Wilson said under this PEP program the maximum salary for any position is $10,000 and that the average annual pay is an estimated $7,000.

County Hearings Set For Senior Citizens

A series of public hearings, sponsored by the County's Office of Senior Citizens Affairs will be held in October and November concerning the development of an area plan for 1975 for senior citizens.

The public hearings will focus on what services should be developed over the next year.

The first of the hearings were held yesterday at Chula Vista Council Chambers and at Grossmont Hospital.

Following is a list of future hearings scheduled:

October 15: Neighborhood House Senior Center, 861 41st st., 10 a.m.-noon.

October 16: South Bay Nutrition Project, St. Charles Church Hall, 990 19th st., Imperial Beach.

October 22: Albright Methodist Church, 4101 48th st.

October 23: Downtown Senior Center, 945 C st.

Education Surveyed By Census Bureau

The Census Bureau announces that a sample of scientifically selected households will be surveyed on education and nursery school enrollment next week. Questions will be asked concerning the number of years of education completed by household members and the number of children in the household attending nursery school.

The annual education study will be part of the monthly employment survey conducted by the Bureau.

VFW Commander To Be Honored

Homecoming festivities honoring California State Veterans of Foreign Wars Commander, Jack Melban, will be held Saturday, October 12, 1974, at the Royal Inn on the Wharf, San Diego. Highlight of the Homecoming is a visit by John J. Stang, National Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Events include a Press Conference in the Melban suite at the Royal Inn from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., a no-host cocktail hour from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. followed by a banquet in the Embarcadero Room at the hotel commencing at 7:30 p.m. A dance will follow.

Mr. Jack Melban was elected Commander of the 75,000 membership of the VFW throughout California at the State Convention held in Bakersfield this past June.

Calls Mills' Vote 'Irresponsible'

James McKinney, Republican candidate for the State Senate in the 40th District, has called Senator James Mills' vote against repealing the legislative bonus plan "irresponsible."

"Republican efforts to repeal the plan have failed because Senators like Mills want to drag the session on, wasting more money, and overriding more of the Governor's vetoes than in repealing this give-away program."

"The whole concept that men such as Mills and lame-duck Assemblyman Bob Moretti can receive $140,000 and $190,000 respectively is amoral and an affront to the citizens and taxpayers of California," said McKinney.

Scholarship Forms Ready

If You Believe You've Been Cheated..

A series of consumer protection advisories have been prepared by the California Trial Lawyers Association to warn consumers of some of the hazards of signing a contract. The following article is one of several that will be published in these columns for several weeks.

Consumers are urged to write CTLA for their Consumer Protection pamphlet which tells "How Not to Be Cheated and Who to Contact If You Are."

The address is at the end of this week's column.

Health Studio Contracts

In certain contractual areas, the legislature has sought to protect the consumer from unfair, deceptive or misleading practices by passing laws which specifically state what the contract must include, and, equally as important, what it cannot include.

Health studio contracts (including any place used for instruction, training, assisistance in gaining physical culture or skills) fall into this area.

The law specifically states that any contract which does not comply with the following provisions is void and unenforceable. Moreover, any buyer who sustains damages as a result of any violation of this law may be awarded attorney's fees, costs of the suit and three times the amount of the actual damages suffered.

The customer is entitled to a written copy of the contract at the time it is signed. Although services may be furnished the customer up to seven years after the signing, payments cannot be spread over two years from the date signed. The total amount cannot exceed $500 and the services must start within six months from the signing date.

Each contract must also contain a clause providing that if the customer dies or becomes disabled, neither his estate nor the person, respectively, is liable for the balance. If the contract is pre-paid, a pro rata share must be refunded.

(To obtain a copy of the CTLA Consumer Protection pamphlet, designed to acquaint you with your rights in the law, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to CTLA, 1020 12th St., Sacramento 95814. Please specify whether you want in in English or Spanish.)

Burgener Speaks Out Against 10¢ Gas Tax Hike

Congressman Clair W. Burgener (R-Rancho Santa Fe) has written to President Ford in opposition to any 10 cents a gallon tax on gasoline. Reports that the Administration may be considering such a tax have persisted in recent weeks in Washington.

In discussing the reported justifications for such a tax in his letter to the President, Burgener said, "It has been maintained that such a tax would encourage greater reliance on mass transportation. This may be an admirable goal but we should remember the plight of the 78% of the population that does not have access to adequate mass transit." He pointed out that this is a particular problem for residents of his Southern California district.

Burglar Gets TV and Stereo

A burglar entered the home of William Keith Thompson, 10421 San Vicente, Spring Valley on Sunday about 5 p.m. and took loot valued at $500, he reported to the sheriff.

A Sanyo color teevee and a sound amplifier were taken while he was away not more than 30 minutes at about 5 p.m.

He valued the stereo equipment at $200 and the teevee at $300.

There were no signs of entry marks.

Recreational Vehicles Displayed at Plaza

Parkway Plaza in El Cajon stages it's Semi-annual recreational vehicle show which runs for four days beginning today thru Sunday. Over 200 Motor Homes, Campers, Travel and Tent Trailers, Mini-homes and Van Conversions will be on display.

A special feature of the show will be an information booth where R.V. owners will be able to obtain expert information on appliance installation and repairs, care and maintenance of their units, travel "tips" and Baja Calif. touring.

The show hours are 10 a.m.-9 p.m. Thursday and Friday, 10-6 Saturday and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Beer Taxes Rise

SAN FRANCISCO—Californians drank 11.5 million barrels of beer during the first nine months of 1974 and forked over a record $117.7 million in federal and state excise taxes for the privilege of doing so.

Beer drinkers paid, in the form of higher retail prices, a federal excise tax of $9 per barrel which sent $103.5 million to Washington.

In addition, the state excise tax of $1.24 per barrel put $14.2 million into the treasury in Sacramento.

The year-to-date beer sales in California are up approximately 10% from 1973 and the Golden State tops all others in total beer consumption, the U. S. Brewers Assn. said.

Fire Prevention Week

The Department of Conservation has declared this week Fire Prevention Week, observed as a reminder that, although the critical wildland fire season is almost over, there are still some potentially dangerous weeks ahead before the autumn rains.

Deddeh Opponent 'Ignorant' Of Legislative Proccesses—Deddeh

Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh has accused his Republican opponent Norm Ross of "an unforgiveable ignorance of the legislative process" in response to Ross's criticism of his position on legislators' retirement bonuses.

Ross had accused Deddeh of "grandstanding" on the retirement issue in a speech before the San Ysidro Rotary Club.

Deddeh voted to side-track an effort last week which would have required the legislature to vote on the retirement bonus issue without public hearings and without considering similar special bonuses for state-wide Constitutional officers.

"I am surprised that a candidate for State Assembly would display such ignorance of the legislative process in suggesting that responsible members of the Assembly or Senate should vote for legislation which is not even before them in written form," Deddeh said.

"If we had acted at that time to rescind these retirement bonuses, we would not have had the opportunity to also repeal the retirement "rip-offs" for Constitutional officers," Deddeh continued.

When Deddeh began the hearings of his committee to study the repeal of the retirement bonuses he read a statement which said, "I will not tolerate partisan or political grandstanding before this committee on this issue."

Deddeh said he was sorry that his GOP opponent at almost the exact same hour in San Ysidro was engaging in the same type of political and partisan grandstanding he outlawed in the committee where the real work to repeal the bonuses was being done.

"Not only did my opponent display an unforgiveable lack of knowledge regarding the legislative process in suggesting the Legislature pass a bill not even before them without any sort of public hearing, he engaged in the worst kind of deception in accusing me of grandstanding, while I was working in Sacramento to repeal this retirement "ripoff" and he was the one grandstanding back in the district," Deddeh stated.

"If the real truth were known my opponent sent me a telegram asking me to join him in calling for a special session of the Legislature, three days after I had already done so and after a decision had already been made by Reagan, the Speaker and the Senate Rules Committee to call the Legislature back.

'Desert Festival' Slated For Borrego Springs

The annual "Days of the Don" Desert Festival will occupy residents and visitors of Borrego Springs the weekend of October 18-20.

Festivities begin Friday with the crowning of the Borrego Springs Queen followed by musical entertainment.

Craft displays, art exhibits and mini-restaurants are attractions that will be featured throughout the festival. A train ride will transport people to various parts of town.

A parade featuring close to 500 participants will head down Palm Canyon dr. at 11 a.m. Saturday. Featured in the parade will be several high school bands and other musical units, clowns, equestrians, antique cars, drill teams and majorettes. Evening activity includes round and square dancing.

A Lion's Club breakfast and a drawing for three prizes will close the festival Sunday.

Health Food, Antiques Under One Roof

Ever have the urge to buy a five-pound bag of rolled oats and a ship's bell from the Prince Charles, and you didn't have time to shop around?

Walk into "Mr. Health" Natural Food Store, 7945 Broadway, Lemon Grove, and you'll kill two birds with one stone.

The newly remodeled "Mr. Health" store has replaced International Health Foods which closed for extensive remodeling in May. Owner and proprietor, Andrew Kerr reopened his new "Light, bright, and airy" shop September 1.

A change is the addition of an antique store operated with the assistance of Kerr's mother. Both Kerrs, as well as being professed experts in health foods for years, are veteran antique collectors and boast that all of their pieces are authenticated. The antiques include the ship's bell; a choice of ancient music boxes, cabinets and roll-top desks; and many other rarities.

Pa Kerr's Country Shop is an ornamental feature of the antique-half of the store. It consists of a quaint in-store reproduction of an old country shop. Inside are many collectables and bygones that are also a part of the Kerr's sellable antiques.

The health food section has been expanded and redesigned to a "convenience food" type store, offering 20% more shelf space than was previously available. A rare feature for retail health food outlets is the grain room, an enclosed refrigerated walk-through area where shoppers can select grains, oils and nuts that are under constant refrigeration.

Football Cards 'Racket' Says Sheriff John Duffy

Football cards, "the biggest sucker bet of all," are beginning to surface in several localities as the football season gets underway, Sheriff John Duffy said this week.

Explaining the "sucker bet" aspects of this illegal type of gambling, Duffy outlined how the football card odds and payoff works.

"A football card usually lists from 10 to 80 teams and are given a point spread. After applying the point spread, many games end in a tie. On nearly all cards, tie games go to the bookie. The sucker automatically loses.

"The better usually picks from three to ten games in his bet. If the better picks three teams and all win by a point spread, he is paid 5 $for every $1 bet. But the odds probability shows the payoff should be $8 for every $1 bet. So even if he 'wins' the sucker is cheated on the odds," Duffy said.

As an indication of how lucrative this illegal operation is to the backers, Duffy said the cards pay off only eight percent of all cards bet, leaving the bookmaker a profit of 92% of everything bet during an average week.

The sheriff said the favorite places for the football cards to appear are where large numbers of sports fans gather, "bars, bowling lanes, sporting events, offices and industrial plants."

"So far, this activity in San Diego County is minor compared to other sections of the U.S. and we intend to keep it that way through vigilant and vigorous enforcement of gambling laws," Duffy said.

Bloodmobile Tours County this Month

Bloodmobile units from the San Diego Blood Bank will be touring the county this month to enable residents to donate at locations near their homes.

Anyone in good health between the ages of 18 and 65 may donate. Credit received for the blood donation may be applied to persons in hospitals throughout the United States. Or, credit may be applied toward a Blood Assurance Plan which covers family members, Blood Reserve Fund for groups or organizations, or the Stork Club, which protects expectant mothers and their babies.

East County residents may donate at El Cajon Elks Lodge, 1440 E. Washington st., 1 to 7 p.m., October 16; St. Andrews Lutheran Church, 8350 Lake Murray rd., 1 to 7 p.m., October 18, or Grossmont Shopping Center, 5500 Grossmont Center dr., 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. October 19.

SC/1st/Nat Net Clumbs

Southern California First National Corp. earned 95 cents net income per share for the nine months ended on September 30 compared to 65 cents for the same period one year ago.

Net income for nine months amounted to $3,481,000 in 1974 versus $2,418,000 for the comparable period last year, according to A. E. Larsen, SCFNC president.

Third quarter net income totalled 35 cents per share or $1,261,000 this year compared to 35 cents or $1,284,000 in 1973.

SCFNC directors have authorized payment of a regular quarterly dividend of 17½ cents per share on November 1 to shareholders of record on October 17, Larsen said.

NOTICE OF FILING APPLICATION FOR INCREASES FOR INTRASTATE TELEPHONE RATES

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company on September 30, 1974, filed with the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California an application for authority to increase certain intrastate rates and charges applicable to telephone service furnished within the state of California. The proposed rate increases will permit Pacific to offset increases in expenses due to wage, salary and associated increases. In general terms, the proposed rate changes are as follows:

No changes would be made in basic monthly exchange service rates.

Service connection charges would increase for new and additional service, moves of customer's telephone sets, certain changes of customer's sets and key telephone system services, and in place connection charges. The charge for initials connection of a residence telephone would be increased from $24.00 to $30.00; the business charges would increase from $35.00 to $45.00. The charge for a customer-initiated change in telephone number would increase from $5.00 to $10.00 for a residence telephone, and from $10.00 to $15.00 for a business telephone.

Charges for line extension and service connection facilities in suburban areas would be changed to reduce the free footage allowance and to base charges for excess footage on a percentage of cost instead of a flat rate per foot.

For Instrastate Message Toll Service, increases are proposed in operator-handled station and person rates. The day period direct dialed initial period would be reduced from three minutes to one minute. Under this arrangement, messages shorter than three minutes would generally cost less and messages of three minutes or longer would cost more. In the evening, the rate for direct dialed messages under 51 miles would be increased, with decreases at certain mileage steps. The night direct dialed rate would be extended to include all day Saturday. For coin calls, a separate rate schedule would be established.

Residence extensions would be increased from $1.00 to $1.25 per month.

Touch-Tone Calling Service would be restructured for individual line and multi-line business and residence service and PBX trunks.

Some key equipment installation charges would be increased.

The wide area telephone service installation charge per access line would increase from $10.00 to $50.00.

Certain miscellaneous and supplemental equipment installation charges and certain private line supplemental equipment installation charges would be increased.

The rates proposed in the application are estimated to produce additional annual gross revenue of $83,800,000 above present rate levels.

Hearings on the application will be set at a later date. Notice of such hearings will be published not less than five nor more than thirty days prior to the initial hearing.

The company's proposed rates would become effective in various California counties and municipal corporations, including the County of San Diego, upon grant of authority therefor by the California Public Utilities Commission.

A copy of the application may be inspected by any interested person in the office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company at 1188 6th Ave., San Diego, California and in the offices of the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California, Fifth Floor, State Building, Civic Center, San Francisco, California, and State Building, 107 South Broadway, Los Angeles, California.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE
No. 4-6191

On the 8th day of November, 1974, at 11:00 a.m., at the Broadway entrance of the County Court House, 220 West Broadway, situated in the City of San Diego, County of San Diego, State of California, CONTINENTAL AUXILIARY COMPANY, a California Corporation, as trustee under Deed of Trust dated March 25, 1971, executed by GARY ALLEN JARVIS and BOBBIE L. JARVIS, husband and wife, and recorded on April 9, 1971, in Book 1971, File/Page 69747 of Official Records, County of San Diego, California, given to secure an indebtedness in favor of BANK OF AMERICA NT & SA, a national banking association, by reason of the breach of certain obligations secured thereby, notice of which was recorded on July 2, 1974, in Book 1974, File/Page 74-176861 of Official Records of said San Diego County, and more than three months have elapsed since such recordation, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, payable in lawful money of the United States of America, at time of sale, without covenant or warranty, express or implied, as to title, possession or encumbrances, the interest conveyed to and now held by the said Trustee under said Deed of Trust, in and to the following described property situated in the County of San Diego, State of California, to-wit:

Lot 20 of HELIX RESMAR ESTATES, in the County of San Diego, State of California, according to the Map thereof No. 3762, filed in the office of the County Recorder December 11, 1957.

The street address and other common designations, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be 4527 Hillview Drive, La Mesa, California 92041; the undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designations, if any, shown herein.

For the purpose of paying obligations secured by said Deed of Trust, including fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee, advances, if any, under the terms of said Deed of Trust and interest thereon.

Dated October 2, 1974.

Kiwanis 'Apple Days' Will Benefit Area Youth

Kiwanis kicks off "Apple Days" next Wednesday for the benefit of local youth projects.

Over the past 20 years, the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club reports having sold 1,935,598 extra fancy delicious apples for this benefit program.

Apple Chairman Louis Poluzzi announced that buyers may visit the "apple car" at the rail siding at North and Imperial avenues daily. It opens at 1 p.m. next Wednesday and will thereafter be open 10 a.m.-5 p.m. through the 19th.

All Kiwanis members are taking orders for the apples. Apples sell for $12 a box, $6 a half-box and $3 a quarter box, containing 100, 50, and 25 apples respectively.

Lemon Grove Kiwanis has contributed more than $36,000 to Mt. Miguel High School, Helix High School and Lemon Grove Junior High School for band uniforms and choir group transportation. They also sponsor the Mt. Miguel Key Club and finance the annual Kid's Day Parade in Lemon Grove.

To place an advance order, contact the L.G. Kiwanis, at 463-8429, or consult any Kiwanis member.

Free Info For Seniors At Center

A comprehensive free Counseling and Information Center for San Diego seniors is opening in the Sumitomo Bank of California downtown, October 15. Assistance will be available on banking as well as non-banking subjects of concern to the elderly.

A gala opening of the Center on the main floor of the bank's headquarters at Fourth and A st. is Tuesday, October 15, 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

All seniors in S. D. County are invited to attend the opening ceremonies. There will be refreshments and door prizes.

Training Center Dedicated Monday

Dedication ceremonies for Grossmont Work Training Center are scheduled for Monday, October 14, 11-11:45 a.m.

The new facility, located at 230 Jamacha rd., El Cajon, now houses more than 200 physically and mentally handicapped Special Education and Adult Education students. At the present time there is a staff of approximately 30 full-time and part-time staff members.

This program was initiated on the Monte Vista High School campus in September 1965 with 24 students and two teachers, moving to El Cajon in September 1967.

Open House for parents will be held Thursday evening, October 17. The Adult Education Parent Group is invited to attend, 4-6 p.m. The parents of Special Education students are invited to attend 7-9 p.m.

Last Dirt Road To Be Paved

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A county service area (CSA) to finance paving of the last dirt road in a Spring Valley area got the nod Monday from Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFCO).

CSA will finance .17 miles of paving for $4,350 on Avocado st. between Bancroft dr. and Valencia.

LAFCO staff analyst Michael Gotch told commissioners 75 percent of the single family dwelling and light agricultural neighborhood's property owners approve the plan.

75 percent of the 80 persons in the 31-acre area approved the plan which will cost them $1.31 on the tax rate for three years.

Cup No Place For Rent Money

Gerald P. Haas of 1228 Presioca, Spring Valley, put $102 in a rent-money cup Saturday at about 7 p.m.

His visitor had some money, an unspecified amount in her purse.

They went to the market for a few minutes and when they returned, the money was gone.

A suspect was named.

FERTILE CENTER STRIP — Mrs. Marie Hargas, 7070 Broadway, Lemon Grove, illustrates the richness of Lemon Grove soil by displaying an uncultivated plant that produced ripe tomatoes on the median strip of Broadway. The plant was discovered growing in the middle of the road by her son, Mike.

Palm Jr. High PTA Sets Magazine Sale

The Palm Jr. High P.T.A. board have initiated the new academic year's activities. They will maintain the current cost of membership at fifty cents an adult rather than succumb to inflationary measures which seem to be sweeping other P.T.A. organizations.

The first general meeting will be on Thursday, October 17 and on the third Thursday of each month thereafter.

The first school activity of the year has already been completed with outstanding student participation in the magazine subscription sales drive to give the P.T.A. and the student council a healthy start for this year.

It is believed that PTA membership will be higher than last year and parents seem to want to become more involved in school affairs, a PTA officer said.

This could be a result of the considerable efforts of the school administration and PTA last year to get "in touch" with the constituency of the school district, he said.

Teachers at Palm Jr. High have indicated that they are very pleased with the quality of the student body and expect a great year with the students and their parents through the PTA and school activities.

The message to parents this year is "Turn Off the boob-tube and get involved with your children and their education."

Heartland to Hear About Con Artistry At Meeting Wed.

Heartland, San Diego Chapter 1140 of the American Association of Retired Persons, Inc. will hold its monthly meeting next Wednesday in Sears Community Room, 2nd floor, Parkway Plaza Shopping Center, 575 Fletcher Parkway, El Cajon.

A representative from the Sheriff's Department will speak and show pictures on bunco and con artists.

Show Pigeons Stolen

Joe Dorame Fraire, of 1507½ Arthur Neal ct., Lemon Grove was the owner of show pigeons valued at $50 when he went to bed Saturday. Sunday, he was pigeonless.

A pigeon thief had visited his pens and left with the birds.

Mail Bag

Dear Editor:

Strikes, Strikes, Strikes — Teachers, Footballers, Truckers, and now the Piccolo Players, Horn Tootelers and Violin Scrapers. Any day now I expect to see the Paddle Tennis Professional Players Association to join the Teamsters Union and swing a few axe handles for more fringe benefits.

I can remember way back when teachers were professional people with an interest in teaching the urchins to read, write and cipher. Now they seem to be shop stewards interested only in more E-Pluribus, shorter hours and longer vacations.

Look at the product they turn out when they do condescend to spend a few hours in the classroom. Observe the students (?) leaving any high school at the end of a long day (about 2 p.m.).

Observe all the little ladies mincing along with their belly buttons showing; the gentlemen with their pony tails horizontal as they roar away on their Hondas and Yamahas.

I am acquainted with one high school senior who graduates this year. By his own admission, he has never read a whole book. His courses this year include Pottery Making, Weight Lifting and one course in English.

When the Footballers went on strike my heart went right out with them. Anyone can tell by looking at them that they do not get enough to eat. This country needs those battling behemoths like it needs another Nixon administration.

Just think how much work would get done if the millions of men who watch football on the idiot box would decide to work instead. The Gross National product would go up, the stock market would quit going down and inflation would be on the run.

FedMart Group To Expand to 45

FedMart Corp., with a store in Lemon Grove, will open another one in Grossmont this fall, it was announced by Sol Price, president of the firm.

The store, to open in November, is at Grossmont blvd. and Jackson dr. It is a 140,000 square foot building previously occupied by White Front.

FedMart recently purchased the property and is now in the process of making extensive renovations and improvements.

The facility will be the thirteenth unit which FedMart operates in San Diego county. It will be the largest store in the chain with floor space almost 50% larger than any other FedMart.

In addition to a complete food department, a deli, a pharmacy, an automotive service center and a garden shop, there will be over 20 other departments — including clothing, toys, car needs, housewares, appliances and cameras.

Many of the departments will carry a more extensive selection of merchandise than is usually found even in a large FedMart store. Included among these will be a large domestics department, an expanded book department and a more extensive sporting goods department.

The store will also feature several areas that are new to FedMart, including a complete do-it-yourself department with paneling, lumber, hardware, shelving and hundreds of other items for home improvements.

The low margin San Diego-based retailer operates forty-four stores in four southwest states.

'Wilson Wrong on Legal and Moral Issues'—Bollman

Mike Bollman, candidate for State Assembly in the new 77th Assembly District, told members of the Pro America Chapter today that he differs substantially with his opponent Bob "Robbie" Wilson on a number of legal and moral issues.

"Wilson voted for a bill which reduces the punishment of a convicted rapist where the rapist intends to inflict and then actually does inflict great bodily injury on the raped victim," Bollman said.

Bollman also stated that "Wilson voted for and supported Assembly Bill 4221 which, according to the California Attorney General, legalizes pornography.

"He also supported a bill which makes legal the use of any vulgar, profane, or indecent language within the presence of women and children," Assembly Bill 3619.

"He also voted for and supported bills which will reduce the penalties for marijuana use and possession, including Assembly Bill 449.

"I strongly oppose these bills," Bollman said. "The people who reside in San Diego County are entitled to an Assemblyman who will provide moral leadership. It is clear from his support of these bills that Robbie Wilson is not that individual," Bollman added.

Termite Swarming Season —the Bane of Homeowners

With the advent of balmy, fall weather, you may notice hundreds of tiny insects swarming around a window sill or door, under an eve, or near furniture or a storage cupboard.

If so, you may have a real problem, Mr. Homeowner. Indications are that you may be hosting thousands of termites which are invisibly engaged in rampant destruction of your home.

According to James A. Ogle, San Diego District Chairman of Pest Control Operators of California, Inc., September and October are peak months in California for drywood termites to swarm and colonize.

Winged reproductives will leave a colony that has been established at least three years and form a new colony where there is ample supply of their singular food, the cellulose found in wood.

Different from the subterranean termite, which nests in the ground and builds mud tubes to invade a home, the drywood will enter the house at any level from roof to first floor window, Ogle says.

The area official of PCOC, a non-profit trade association, points out that in addition to swarming (the termite mate selection exercise), the homeowner may notice other signs of infestation such as:

Warnings

— Piles of tiny discarded wings on the floor beneath doors or windows. (These are shed when the reproductives end their swarm and begin searching for a suitable site to start a new colony.)

— Small piles of straw colored or reddish brown fecal pellets near woodwork.

— Blistered or darkened areas on hardwood floors, window sills or frames, beams, joists, etc.

All mean that termite workers, bred to supply a colony's sustenance, are inside wood in the home enjoying a continuous covert feast designed to last until nothing is left but a collapsible shell.

Ogle says termites make no noise except when chewing. The sound will be faint but can be heard.

In recognizing whether infestation is by the drywood or subterranean termite, Ogle says the latter first attacks a home's substructure and flooring. Subterranean termites colonize throughout the year in some areas.

Home Sweet Home

Ogle adds that dead tree limbs, wooden fences, stored firewood and utility poles are natural reservoirs for the drywood and that its winged reproductive is a weak flier.

This means a new colony will be founded near the parent colony and that the existence of the above harborage around a home poses an infestation danger.

California has severe termite problems because of its temperate climate, Ogle says. He suggests that the wise homeowner will periodically invest a modest sum in having a pest control professional undertake a termite inspection.

PCOC's consumer education programs include offering the public free booklets on pest prevention, detection and control.

Tool Loss is $1783.

Miscellaneous power tools valued at $1783 were stolen Thursday night or Friday morning from the Imperial Custom Cabinet Corp. at 3737 Kenora st. in Spring Valley.

Emanuel Schiele, the firm's owner named a couple of suspects.

While there were a great number of tools on the premises, only the power tools were taken, he told sheriff's deputies.

Equipment Taken During Weekend

A pocket calculator and a cassette recorder were missing from the home of David Eugene Zuch during the weekend.

He gave no estimate of the amount of the loss and he named no suspects.

Zuch lives at 3311 Helix st. in Spring Valley.

McCoy Opposes World Food Bank

Jack McCoy, American Independent Party nominee for United States Senator, charged that American participation in the world food bank, proposed by President Gerald Ford, "will subject consumers, and particularly those on fixed incomes to another inflationary rip-off that will drastically reduce their standard of living."

McCoy said it is time that the people of the United States "elect a government which is concerned about their interests, not primarily interested in subsidizing foreign lands."

He equated Ford's world food bank proposal with the Nixon administration's Russian wheat deal which, he said, drastically increased the price of food to American consumers. "As our wheat supply was shipped abroad," McCoy said, "the price of wheat increased drastically, being reflected in tremendous increases in the consumer prices of meat, bread, and cereal products. Further, there is no evidence that our country will ever be paid for the wheat, and on top of it, our government subsidized the shipping."

Tay-Sachs Prevention Clinics Begin Oct. 13

Jewish people of child-bearing age will be stopping by the Jewish Community Center from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday, as the Tay-Sachs Prevention-Testing free clinics—aimed at eliminating an incurable disease — gets underway. The Jewish Community Center is located at 54th and University.

The Scottish Rite Masonic Center, 1895 Camino del Rio in Mission Valley, is the next screening site, Monday, Oct. 14 from noon to 9 p.m.

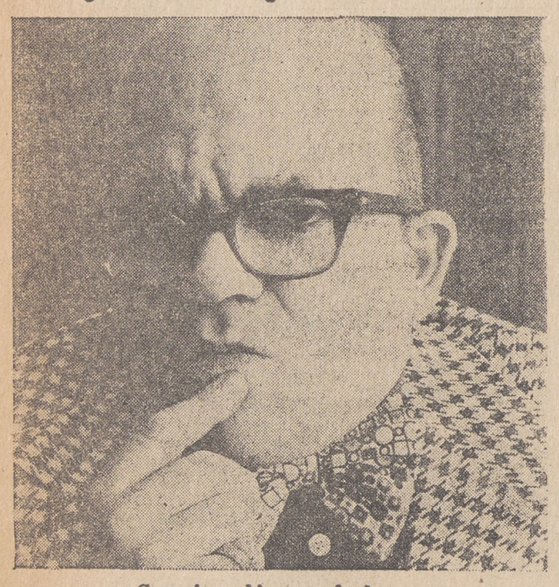
The Jewish Community Center plans another clinic, Thursday, Oct. 17, 5-9 p.m. Others will be at the United Church, 2877 Governor drive, Sunday, Oct. 20, 1-5 p.m. and Temple Beth Israel, Third and Laurel, 8:45 a.m. to 3 p.m., Oct. 27.

Samples of blood will be drawn from each individual analyzed at the Tay-Sachs laboratories in a massive effort to identify all carriers of the dreaded disease, one which attacks the nervous system of afflicted infants and invariably kills them by the time they are four or five years old.

Skin Cancer Grows

Medical statistics indicate skin cancer is the prevalent malignancy with 120,000 new cases a year in the United States.

If you're so rich, why aren't you smart?



So you're making a good salary. But you're not saving any of it. Instead, you want to go after the "big deal" that's going to make you a cool million. Maybe.

What happens if your big scheme goes sour? You've still got to get through the future. And, let's face it. Nobody can afford to take tomorrow for granted.

So maybe you'd better join the Payroll Savings Plan now. Just sign up at work. An amount you specify will be set aside from your paycheck and used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

That way, you can still afford to take a few financial risks, if that's your bag. But you'll always have a solid cash reserve to fall back on. And that's being smart.

Now E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4½% the first year). Bonds are replaced if lost, stolen or destroyed. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.
